CAMERON, CASTLES & STOREY.

It is getting time to shove off odds and ends, the Summer season being pretty well advanced, some popular lines of goods have had a good run, on account of which they have been ordered over and over again, these particular lines we are now very anxious to sell, and in order to make them go, we made such reductions as will sell them even though the customer should not have any particular use for them, the the smallest out we are making this week, is 25 per cent. on former prices. Now we will start out on Embroideries.

Embroideries! Embroideries!!

Hamburg Edgings, nice qualities 3-12c.
Hamburg Edging good width 5c.
Hamburg Edging 4-12c.
Hamburg Edging 6-12c.
Hamburg Edging 7c., and all the way up to 50c. per yd., of course we have a choice line of Embroideries, but the line named above is of the very best quality and not an undesirable pattern in the lot, they are worth 25 per cent. more than the price we are selling them for.

Swiss and Lawn Embroideries.

We have a large line of these in all widths, ranging from 10c. to 50c. per yard, in this line we are showing the biggest drive ever offered in this market.
We are offering a line of Towel lace, and insertions from 3c. to 50c. per yard, by which you can judge how cheap goods are getting.

White Goods and Lawns.

We are still rushing the printed linen lawns at 15, 16 1-2, 18, 22 1-2, 25, and 30c. per yard, every yard of which is worth nearly double that price.
Our white plaques are selling down, they are the greatest bargain ever sold in this market. We are selling them at 8 1-2c. per yd.
We have a big lot of India lawns left which we have reduced in prices until there is no bottom left.
Our colored Victoria lawns have been reduced to 16 2-3c. per yd.; they were 18c. hot cakes all this summer at 25c.

This is an Opportunity for Bargains and no ONE should MISS IT.

While in an Iron Cell, a Prisoner is Shot by Four Masked Men.

A GEORGIA HORROR!

Four Masked Men Riddle a Confined Prisoner With Buckshots.

Monticello, Ga., August 1.—A volley of shots, apparently from half a dozen men, suddenly assailed a prisoner confined in a cell in the jail here this morning. Those who were out first saw four masked men running in different directions. In the jail the dead body of a man was found shot to pieces with buckshots.

Several days ago Hopkins quarreled with his employer, George Gilmore, a wealthy planter of this county, and while Gilmore was attending to his stock, he was struck on the back of his head by Hopkins and fell insensible to the ground, when Hopkins fell upon him with a knife. He was interrupted in his attack by a half-dozen men whom he successfully resisted, cutting his way through them with his bloody knife and escaping to the woods.

Three of the men with dogs started in pursuit, keeping on the trail until Tuesday morning when they overtook him in McDougall and arrested him. He was more like a wild animal than a man, and on the way back he was tied hand and foot, so determined was he in attacking his guards.

In the jail here is one of Pauline's patent cells. Into this Hopkins was placed and kept for the night. About twenty masked men rode up to the edge of the town at 11 o'clock Thursday night and four of them were detailed to proceed to the jail, being armed with double-barreled shot guns. As they approached the cell, which has openings for ventilating, the prisoner begged for mercy. The four men, however, silent as death, placed their guns at the openings and fired, fairly filling the prisoner with shot. Quickly reloading they discharged their guns again and turning upon their heels rejoined their companions and rode away. Coroner Whitten has summoned a jury and is making strenuous efforts to ferret out the murderers.

THE CATTLEMEN.

Kansas City Petitions the President to Repeal the Act.

Kansas City, August 1.—The citizens' committee, appointed by Mayor Moore last night, met to-day and forwarded a dispatch to the president, asking an extension of time for vacating the Cheyenne and Arapaho lands by cattlemen, in behalf of general business interests. A dispatch was also sent to representatives of cattle interests there, saying that the citizens' committee would go to Washington, if advisable.

Chicago Ballot Box Stuffer Caught. Chicago, August 1.—Patrick Candone, one of the persons indicted for the theft of a ballot box from the Third precinct of the Third ward, was arrested at Princeton, Ill., this morning and a detective started at once to bring him to Chicago. Candone was arrested at Arlington a few days ago and it was supposed he had fled to Canada. O'Keefe, one of the three persons indicted for the crime, is now serving out a sentence in the penitentiary.

MARLIN MATTERS.

A Murderer Condemned to Death—A Cry for Rain.

Marlin, August 1.—Wash Washington (colored) has been on trial during the week in the district court for the murder of Willis Darden on the 27th day of May last. These negroes were reuters on the farm of Austin Hooover, and as the testimony developed were regarded almost as brothers, being inseparable companions. Washington it appears associated with a woman and they had some trouble about her, and it is said they had further trouble about the possession of a gun. If there was any other motive for the commission of the crime, it is locked in the breasts of the dead victim and the convicted murderer. The murder was committed on the 27th of May, during the flooded season, and the man's dying statement was that Washington killed him, and the murderer also stated to several persons, within an hour of the commission of the crime, that he had killed him, and that he was going to leave the country. He fled and was captured at Ennis, was brought back and, being tried yesterday, was convicted of murder in the first degree. The death penalty was assessed. This was one of the most cold-blooded murders ever committed in this county; he lay in wait for his victim and in the evening twilight shooting him from ambush as he would some beast

THE CABLE LETTER.

English Political Trouble—The "City" Primely Moored, and London News and Gossip.

English political campaign is still in search of a definite programme for party action. Developments of the last week indicate an immense rupture in the conservative party, caused through the dissent of old Tories who constitute the vast bulk of the party. They believe the dissident party election leaders have been going too far to propitiate the parliaments and secure them as allies. Remonstrances have been sent to the Marquis of Salisbury from nearly all provincial Tory election agents. These remonstrances added to the protests of conservative members of parliament have been made a subject of cabinet discussion, and the result is:

LORD RANDOLPH CHURCHILL has submitted to party discipline. He agreed to take a humble public role and has engaged to appear before his angry and dissident party colleagues in Liverpool and explain to them, and attempt to justify his actions with the Irish home-rulers. He has also consented to go on an election tour, during which he will visit the Marquis of Salisbury. Lord Randolph is stubborn, however, and has not surrendered unconditionally. He has secured the consent of his more aged and conservative friends to a moderate policy which will embrace local self-government reform and reform in the British land-laws. It is true these terms are very general, but they are the only ones which will permit him to lead his party to a general advocacy of local self-government and land-law reform. Lord Randolph will, in his own good time, secure the adoption of a moderate policy, and will then particular and radical application of these same principles. He will then trade that he will merge his following with that of Parnell as champion of the cause of the Irish land-law reform, and the "old Tories" and for the leadership on his own account. Bad off, politically, as the Tories seem to be.

THE LIBERALS APPEAR TO BE in a still worse condition. They have, it seems, small prospects of securing a majority in the coming election and smaller prospects still of agreeing on a party cry. Harrington, secretary to Marquess of Salisbury, who was Mr. Gladstone's minister for war, caused more or less political excitement the other day by writing a public letter deploring the lack of party unity among the Liberals.

THE GRAND OLD MAN.

Refuses to speak and refuses to formulate a policy for his distracted party.

Despite constant representations of his colleagues, Mr. Gladstone refused to state the principles on which he means to appeal to new electors.

Traveling, John Morley and a large number of other radicals of the school, which have already the liberal party to adopt. It demands the disestablishment of the church in England and Scotland; home rule for Ireland and reform in the feudal land system.

KEYNOTE TO HEALTH.

Health is wealth. Wealth means health.

The Princess of Wales and her three daughters have been seen nearly every day driving in Rotten Row, accompanied by two other royal carriages, filled with foreign notables. A society incident that caused quite a stir happened recently in Rotten Row. The Prince of Wales was driving with his sons when they met Mrs. Langtry, who was also out and gossip says "with knowledge of coming events."

As soon as his royal highness recognized the "Lily" he left his sons and joined the actress, whom he accompanied through the park. Theatrical speculators declare this Royal favor during her next professional tour.

Gen. Hancock Pushing the Funeral Procession.

Gen. Hancock is pushing the funeral procession for positions in the funeral cortege and offers of personal service for staff and other duties connected with the military escort on the occasion, continue to pour in to Major General Hancock's office on Governor's Island and have necessitated the employment of several extra clerks in filing and recording the mass of correspondence. Admiral Joutet, this morning had a long interview with Major General Hancock in relation to the disposition of the naval forces under the admiral's command. A prominent official states that various non-officials will be stationed at different points on the North River and fire salutes during the progress of the funeral procession. The matter of marines and sailors parading as a portion of the escort, is not yet settled.

A despatch was received on behalf of President Cleveland, asking for a position in the line. It is intended that the President will accompany the funeral procession.
